An Application for a Writ of Garnishment against the property of Eric Scott Grant, defendant/debtor, has been filed with this Court. A judgment has been entered against the defendant/debtor. The current total amount of $20,344.00, computed through November 21, 2008, is due and owing.

The United States and the defendant, Eric Scott Grant, have come to the agreement that you must withhold and retain any property in which the defendant/debtor has a substantial non-exempt interest and for which you are or may become indebted to the defendant/debtor pending further order of the court. This means that you should withhold 10% of the defendant/debtor's earnings which remain after all deductions required by law have been withheld and 100% of all 1099 payments. See 15 U.S.C. §1673(a).

Under the law, there is property which is exempt from this Writ of Garnishment. Property which is exempt and which is not subject to this order may be listed on the attached Claim for Exemption form.

Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1674, you, the Garnishee, are prohibited from discharging the defendant/debtor from employment by reason of the fact that his earnings have been subject to garnishment for any one indebtedness.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §3205(c)(6), if you fail to answer this writ or withhold property or funds in accordance with this writ, the United States of America may petition the Court for an order requiring you to appear before the court to answer the Writ and to withhold property before the appearance date. If you fail to appear or do appear and fail to show good cause why you failed to comply with this Writ, the court shall enter a judgment against you for the value of the defendant/debtor's non-exempt interest in such property. The Court may award a reasonable attorney's fee to the United States and against you if the Writ is not answered within the time specified. It is unlawful to pay or deliver to the defendant/debtor any item attached by this writ.

This Court shall retain jurisdiction in the case for the purpose of enforcing the terms of this agreement.
